Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another buy that would forever change the way the game was watched. On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release to announce the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they shared unhappily with the landlord Giants of the National League since 1913. Yankee Stadium is far more than just baseball. The Extended Baylor Fans will be at the house that Ruth built on Wednesday evening September 17. This will be an occasion that you will never forget since it will be one of the last 5 season games in the history of this stadium as it is being torn down following this season.

Sunday the 21st Harlem Gospel Tour with breakfast at Amy Ruth's in Harlem. On this tour you will attend church at the Abyssinian Baptist Church plus see The Apollo Theater in Harlem and much more...
